Deductible – freely selectable

The statutory minimum deductible for persons aged 19 and over is CHF 300 a year. Insured persons can increase it voluntarily, so as to be eligible for a premium discount. There is no statutory annual deductible for children up to the age of 18. However, it is possible to choose one voluntarily. The deductible is the insured person's contribution to costs in connection with physicians, hospitalisation, medication etc. Only when the deductible amount is exhausted does the health insurance contribute to the further costs (minus retention fee).

Possible annual deductibles
Youths and adults aged 19 and over	Children up to the age of 18
CHF 2500	CHF 600
CHF 2000	CHF 500
CHF 1500	CHF 400
CHF 1000	CHF 300
CHF 500	CHF 200
CHF 300	CHF 100
The higher the deductible you choose, the more you save on your premium. Calculate your individual premium at visana.ch .

A quick explanation of retention fee

The health insurance provider contributes 90% of the treatment costs that exceed the agreed deductible; the insured person is to pay the remaining 10%, as a so-called 'retention fee'. This also applies to children. The retention fee is capped: For insured persons aged 19 and above, it is a maximum of CHF 700 a year; for younger insured persons, the maximum is CHF 350. The retention fee is to be paid for all basic insurance benefits, except maternity benefits.
